ORDER¹

The Charging Party's request for special permission to appeal Administrative Law Judge Elizabeth Tafe's July 31, 2018 oral ruling on the record denying the Charging Party's petition to revoke subpoena duces tecum B-1-11SBKZ5 is granted, and on the merits, the appeal is denied. The Charging Party has failed to establish that the judge abused her discretion in denying the petition to revoke the subpoena.

In addition, the Charging Party's and General Counsel's requests for special permission to appeal the judge's July 31, 2018 oral ruling on the record and August 13, 2018 written order denying the Charging Party's and General Counsel's motions for summary judgment on the Respondent's affirmative defenses are granted, and on the merits, the appeals are denied. The Charging Party and General Counsel have failed to establish that the judge abused her discretion in denying the motions.
